

I would like to tell everyone a few things that have happened to me since I received the Quantum Gift. I couldn't write down everything as I would be here for a week or more.

Firstly I have been using the Law of Attraction for about 8 weeks and have already earned back more than I paid for it...that's apart from what I have attracted. I am starting to find that people are attracting me to them and vice versa. I started to attract almost immediately ...cheques started arriving that I had written off, people who owed me money from ages ago rang me up and said they could now pay me back, I was amazed.

I lost contact with my brother almost 4 years ago and I so much wanted to know where he was and if he was ok. I was looking at some old photos and decided to put them in various places around the house and in the car where I would see them all the time. I focused my thoughts on him every spare moment. I visualised meeting up with him again over and over again. To my delight he contacted me 2 weeks later on my birthday. When I asked him why he had contacted me now and not before he said I don't know you have just been on my mind for the last couple of weeks probably because your birthday was coming up. He hadn't remembered before so why now. We are meeting up when he returns from holiday and guess what he suggested meeting at the place that I had visualised.

I have played the lottery for years and only ever won £10 about 3 times but now I play on line and every Wednesday and Saturday I win something ...it hasn't been big amounts but its good fun and I don't even have to check my ticket as they do it for you and just keep putting the money into my account. I put a business card on my vision board and almost immediately the phone started ringing with new clients, special offers on advertising and it hasn't stopped. I pinned some money on my board and I drew a picture of myself paying money and cheques in at the bank counter and that's what I have been doing ever since. I received a nice cheque the other day for £5,044.27. I thought about converting my garage and changing my mortgage to another company and suddenly the phone started ringing and letters arriving offering me great deals on mortgages. I now have a new mortgage saving me £300 per month and that includes an extra £10,000 they so kindly offered me to do the garage and a few other things. I have a problem with my computer which is getting worse by the day so I cut out a picture of one I fancied and put it on my board the price was £399.99 special offer, 4 hours later I had been given £400 to pay for it how good is that! I was out yesterday afternoon looking for a shed but the place that had been recommended had closed down. I called to collect some money from someone on the way home, she had just arrived at the house the same time as me and I told her I had been in the area looking for a shed, we went inside the door and she handed me a leaflet that had just been delivered and said "this must be for you then" it was a special offer for sheds with 10% off, it just gets better and better and that's not the half of it. I am certainly enjoying the journey and just so excited for the future! Maureen Bowman.
